

South Dakota Assessments Program Online System Trainings

This communication lists the current system trainings scheduled for the Spring 2021 administration.

Training Title	Description	Link
Test Information Distribution Engine (TIDE) System Training	As part of the online training series for the South Dakota Assessments Program, the training provides an overview of the Test Information Distribution Engine (TIDE) system. After viewing this training, you should become familiar with managing user accounts, managing student test settings, creating rosters that are required to view test data in the Reporting system and monitoring test progress.	Enter your information to view the training
Test Delivery System (TDS) Proctor Training	As part of the online training series for the South Dakota Assessments Program, the training provides an overview of the Test Delivery System (TDS) for proctors. After viewing this training, you should become familiar with starting an online, pausing, and stopping a test session, viewing/editing student accommodations, and monitoring student during the session. This training is intended for proctors or other school administrators who will be administering ELA, Math, Science Summative Assessments.	Enter your information to view the training

Training Title	Description	Link
Data Entry Interface (DEI) System Training for South Dakota Science Assessment (SDSA) Paper	As part of the online training series for the South Dakota Assessments Program, the training provides an overview of the Data Entry Interface (DEI) system. The DEI is a component of the Test Delivery System that allows authorized users to enter student assessment responses for the SDSA Science Paper assessment. After viewing this presentation, you should be able to understand what the Data Entry Interface is and how to access it, enter student responses into the DEI, and use the different features available in the DEI. This training is district users who will be entering student responses for the SDSA paper assessment.	Enter your information to view the training
Reporting System Webinar	As part of the online training series for the South Dakota Assessments Program, the training provides an overview of the Reporting system. As part of the online training series for the South Dakota Assessments Program, this webinar provides an overview of the Reporting system. This training provides an overview of the Reporting system. After viewing this training, you should become familiar with navigating the system to view interim and summative assessment performance reports. This training is intended for district or school users.	Enter your information to view the training

Training Title	Description	Link
South Dakota Alternate Assessment Proctor Training	As part of the online training series for the South Dakota Assessments Program, the training provides an overview for Proctors of the South Dakota Science Alternate Assessment (SDSAA). After viewing this presentation, you should be able to understand how to identify SDSAA students, start test sessions, monitor test sessions and how to use the Early Stopping Rule and Paper Response Cards. This training is for District and School users administering the SDSAA.	Enter your information to view the training